

BOOK CLUB

QUESTIONS

1. What were your first impressions of Josephine? Did they shift as the story unraveled? What prompted the change?
2. This book weaves themes of identity, motherhood, and trauma. Which resonated most deeply with you, and how did the author convey it?
3. How did you interpret the presence of the faeries? Do you believe they were real within the world of the book, or manifestations of Josephine's mind?
4. What role did Mags play in Josephine's descent or transformation?
5. Which moment haunted you the most? A scene, a line, a revelation—what lingered?
6. How does the novel portray postpartum mental health? Does it subvert or reflect real-life narratives?
7. Were there any moments where you found yourself empathizing with Josephine? Even when her actions were unsettling?
8. How did you interpret the ending? Why or why not? How did you interpret Josephine's final choice?